Terms for Products Sold by Deposit Agents

1. Guaranteed Investment Certificates (GICs) - Guaranteed Return - Your GIC is locked-in until the maturity date shown on your Confirmation of Investment, your Renewal Confirmation or in your RSP statement. This means we will pay interest on the investment amount until the maturity date, but you cannot redeem or withdraw any amount until the investment matures.

2. Term Deposits - Withdrawals - You may withdraw all or part of your non-registered Term Deposit before the maturity date. The amount that you may withdraw before the maturity date depends on the type and/or term and amount of your investment, as shown in the chart below. You will receive interest on the amount you withdraw at the applicable pre-encashment rate shown on the Confirmation of Investment or Renewal Confirmation. You will continue to earn interest on the balance remaining at the original interest rate set out in the Confirmation of Investment or Renewal Confirmation.

| Type of Deposit | Term (years) | Deposit Amount | Minimum  Withdrawal & Balance Remaining |
|-----------------|---------------|---------------------|---|
| Standard | one + | $1,000 - 99,999.99 | $1,000 |
| Standard | less than one | $5,000 - 99,999.99 | $5,000 |
| Wholesale | any | $100,000 + | $100,000 |

If the term of your investment is less than one year, we may require you to notify us 24 hours before you make a withdrawal. If your term is one year or more, we may require 15 days advance notice of any withdrawal.

3. Interest payments - If you have arranged to have your interest on your non-registered investment paid to you by cheque, we will mail regular interest payments to you before the payment due date so that you will receive them by the due date. If the maturity option that you have chosen is to pay out the principal and interest, your final interest payment will be included with the principal and mailed to you on the maturity date. Interest is not paid on any investment beyond the maturity date.

4. Contact customer - If you choose a maturity option of "Contact Customer", we will try to contact you within two weeks prior to the maturity date for your instructions. If we are unable to contact you by the maturity date, we may deposit the investment (principal amount and any accrued interest) to any account you have with us, or we may (but are not obliged to) reinvest your investment for a term selected by us in our discretion and at our then current interest rate and terms. If we reinvest your investment, we will send your Renewal Confirmation to the most recent address we have for you. If you don't want us to reinvest your investment, you must tell us before the close of business on the maturity date. Interest will cease on investments that are not reinvested.

5. Transfer to Daily Interest Savings Section on Maturity - Unless we are otherwise instructed by you prior to the close of business on the day of maturity, we will transfer your registered investment (principal amount and any accrued interest) into the daily interest savings section of your retirement savings plan/retirement income fund.

6. Transfer of investment - You may transfer and assign ownership of your non-registered GIC only to another person. For more information about transferring your GIC, contact us at the contact branch office shown on your Confirmation of Investment or Renewal Confirmation. You may not transfer or assign ownership of your Term Deposit.

7. Changes to investment - You may perform any transactions or deliver instructions that involve your investment through your deposit agent. You may also do so through the contact branch office which is recorded on your RSP statement, Confirmation of Investment or Renewal Confirmation. Also, if you find any errors with your investment, contact your deposit agent who will contact the contact branch office on your behalf.

8. Additional terms - Some investments have additional special terms which, if applicable, are shown on your Confirmation of Investment or Renewal Confirmation or provided to you or your deposit agent separately at the time of your purchase. By purchasing that investment, you agree to be bound by them.

9. Joint registration - If more than one person signs on a joint ownership record that a non-registered investment is a joint account, then you may not appoint an attorney for the account without the consent of all of you. We may act on instructions with respect to the account from any one of you if they do not substantially alter the rights of each of you to the funds in the account; otherwise we may require all of you to confirm the instructions. We will not allow any of you to withdraw money from the account or deal with the account in any way if:

- we discover that any one of you has declared bankruptcy or become the subject of bankruptcy proceedings; or
- we are given notice that any one of you has been declared mentally incompetent or incapable of managing your own affairs, subject to your having appointed an attorney whose capacity survives your mental incompetency.

You may designate an account a joint account with right of survivorship (except for accounts opened in the province of Quebec) or without a right of survivorship on a joint ownership record. By signing a joint ownership record and indicating that you want a right of survivorship, you each assign and transfer to all of you jointly and your survivors all money deposited to the account and interest on the deposits. If an account has a right of survivorship, on the death of any of you, any moneys in the account may be withdrawn by the survivor or, if more than one, by the appropriate parties designated to sign on the account. If you do not complete the designation on a joint ownership record, the account will be without a right of survivorship.

10. Dormant (abandoned) accounts - If you have not communicated with us regarding your non-registered investment, during the previous ten years, under federal law your investment will be considered abandoned. We are required to communicate with you within two years and five years of your last account activity. Dormant accounts may be subject to reasonable service charges which may be charged on accounts which are inactive and which are presumed to be abandoned. If there are insufficient funds in your account to cover the service charges which are payable by you, you authorize us to close the account. Accounts which are presumed to be abandoned will be subject to escheat (this means the deposits become the property of the federal government) in accordance with federal law and transferred to the Bank of Canada. There is a process for reclaiming those deposits by filing a claim with the Bank of Canada.

11. Liability for damages limited - We will not be liable for any damages (including special, indirect or consequential damages) resulting from:

- any failure, error, malfunction or inaccessibility of any Machine, system or equipment; or
- any failure, error or delay in any Service even if:
 - we knew that damage was likely; or
 - the damage was a result of our negligence or the negligence of our employees, agents or representatives.

12. Who is governed by these terms - These terms are binding on us, our successors and assigns. They are also binding on you, your successors, permitted assigns and on your heirs and personal representatives - including your executors and administrators. You must obtain our written consent to assign these terms and any account to another person. The singular shall be construed as meaning the plural and vice versa where the context so requires.

13. Protecting your privacy - Keeping your personal and financial information confidential has always been fundamental to the way we do business. Our Privacy Code, "Protecting Your Privacy" applies to The Toronto-Dominion Bank and its affiliates. In it, we explain why we ask for your personal and financial information, how we protect your records, when we release your information, and how you can view, check and correct it if needed. If you have any concerns, please ask us for a copy.

14. If you have a comment, concern or complaint - We're committed to providing you with superior service and to answering any questions you have about our products and services. If we don't meet your expectations, please let us know. We'll do our best to satisfy you.

If you have a concern, please talk to the representative with whom you usually deal. The representative is there to help, is prepared to look into your concern promptly, and will try to resolve it to your satisfaction.

If you require additional information about our complaint process, please refer to our customer complaints brochure.

15. Electronic communications - Any electronic communication between you and us will take place according to the provisions of this section. The term "electronic communication" means any communication of instructions by telex, telephone, wire or other method of telecommunication or electronic transmission, including a facsimile transmission or personal computer.

We will consider any electronic communication received from you or in your name to be duly authorized by you. You authorize us to rely and act on any such communication. If the communication is by facsimile transmission, we will be entitled to act upon any signature purporting to be your signature. If we try to verify the signature on a facsimile transmission or the validity of any instructions electronically communicated (though we are not obligated to do so) and are unable to do so to our satisfaction, we may delay in acting on or refuse to act on such instructions.

We may, at your request, forward to you copies of any statements, Instruments or other documents by facsimile or other electronic transmission to the number or address provided by you from time to time.

For our mutual protection, we may record all telephone calls that relate to the use of or include instructions for using the Services or Machines.

You agree that our records regarding any electronic communication will be admissible in any legal, administrative or other proceedings as if such records were original written documents. Our records will be conclusive proof of the information contained in such electronic communications.

16. Definitions - Machine means The Green MachineTM and other automated banking machines, terminals, INTERAC* Direct Payment* terminals, telephones and other equipment you may use with your card or Connect ID to access our services. In addition to your card or Connect ID, you must use a PIN or password with the machine to access our services.

Card means an Access Card, or TD Visa Card or any other card that is issued by us in your name, your attorney's name or signed by you or your attorney.

Connect ID means your personal identification code that, together with your Password, provides you with access to your account through certain services.

Password means each personal identification word or number that, together with a Card or Connect ID, provides you with access to your personal deposit accounts or certain other accounts designated by us through certain services, including your Phonenumber.

Service means any account or service designated by us as covered hereunder that may be accessible with or without your PIN or Password, including:

- Obtaining cash advances from, making withdrawals from, deposits to or transfers between your accounts; or
- Any other transaction or service that we may provide to you from time to time.

We, us and our refer individually and collectively to The Toronto Dominion Bank and its affiliates.

You, your and yours refers to the customer(s) in whose name the Product is registered.
